

Stephen Hamilton

Collegiate Recovery Coordinator

Stephen finished his bachelor's degree in Biblical Studies at Florida College before attending Ball State to obtain an M.A. in Clinical Mental Health Counseling. He has professional experience working with the 988 Suicide & Crisis Lifeline and clinical experience through his master's internship and practicum. He is now serving as the collegiate recovery coordinator to advocate for the mental health needs of the students, specifically in substance abuse prevention. He organizes the collegiate recovery coalition, which spreads awareness about mental health issues and networks with substance abuse prevention efforts throughout Delaware county. He believes in advocating for equitable mental health services to all people and developing policies with empathy.
