

Student Success Commitments

Student success is a shared responsibility between students, faculty, staff and other college community members. A campus culture of student success is fostered when all actively seek to improve on the following behaviors.

STUDENTS

- Attend class, learn the names of your instructors, and work to develop a relationship of trust with them
- Complete what you start
- Attempt each assignment
- Develop well-organized and disciplined study habits
- Ask questions and be prepared to use campus support resources, such as tutoring or Disability Support Services, when needed

FACULTY

- Interact with student by name by first class/end of first week
- Monitor student behavior and progress closely and intervene immediately, including providing timely feedback on assignment/exams so students can make changes to their learning practices
- Initiate one-on-one and frequent communications with students early in semester, and maintain communication throughout the semester
- Conduct highly structured courses with penalties for missed exams and assignments but be flexible when appropriate
- Know your campus resources and direct students to them when needed

STAFF

- Make eye contact, smile, and say hello to everyone on campus
- Celebrate positive student behavior and intervene when vulnerable behavior is noticed
- Engage with students, staff, and faculty - establish a personal connection
- Establish clear and coherent practices and processes for students – eliminate barriers and make others aware when needed
- Know your campus resources and direct students to them when needed
