

Brandon Williams

Collegiate Prevention Coordinator

Brandon Williams recently moved to Muncie from Chicago, Illinois. He comes to Ivy Tech with 12 years experience working in social services/social work in the fields of child and family services, addictions/recovery, mental health, sports (coaching), education, and healthcare. Brandon attended Butler University in Indianapolis before transferring to Western Illinois University where he received his degree. Brandon spends his down time painting/drawing, watching movies, spending quality time with family, traveling, and watching/playing sports.

Contact Information

bwilliams765@ivytech.edu